

PREPARING FOR PERMANENT CRISIS?

RESHAPING GLOBAL HEALTH IN THE AFTERMATH OF COVID-19

Sat, 16 Sept 2023 • 12:30 • Evangelische Schule Berlin Zentrum • Wallstrasse 32, 10179 Berlin

12:00	Arrival and Registration
13:00	Opening and Welcome by IPPNW and medico international
13:15	Keynote Speech: Global Health Security after COVID-19 – Geopolitics, Technology and Inequality Anne Roemer-Mahler, University of Sussex, UK
14:30	Coffee Break & Snacks
15:00	Workshops
	1 Global Health Security after Covid-19 Mara Linden, Goethe University Frankfurt, Germany Questioning the role of preparedness for pandemic readiness, the role of security and economic narratives in global health, and possible alternatives for future global health(s).	2 Subjects, not Objects of Health Poliklinik Veddel, Hamburg, Germany Community action on Covid-19 as an antidote to bio-medical securitization in pandemic times.	3 Health Securitisation in the Context of Migration and Displacement Anuj Kapilashrami, University of Essex, UK Deconstructing migration 'crises' and its contested framing, especially securitisation, human rights and public health and the implications for health rights.
16:30	Break
16:45	Workshops
	4 Europe first – the 2022 Global Health Strategy of the geopolitical Commission , Christopher Knauth, Public Health Expert, Germany Preaching solidarity and keeping the vaccines for themselves. How the EU and big pharma became fellows in crime during the pandemic and what does this mean for a new EU Global Health Strategy.	5 Post-Growth Economics: A Must for Planetary Health Justice , Remco van de Pas, CPHP Berlin, Germany Overcoming continuation of colonial arrangements, structural and institutional growth dependencies within our global economy to achieve a decolonial eco-just Planetary Health Agenda.	6 Health under Pressure Elif Turan, Diyarbakir Medical Chamber, Turkey Interconnections between crises: experiences from medical doctors and practitioners in the Kurdish majority areas of Turkey.
18:15	Break & Finger Food
18:45	Panel and Discussion: How to move forward? What are lived alternatives and what are shared utopias? Anuj Kapilashrami, Anne Roemer-Mahler, Remco van de Pas Facilitation: Andreas Wulf, medico international
20:15	Get-together & Wine Bar

Organised by:

Supported by:

ENGAGEMENT GLOBAL
mit Mitteln des Bundes-
ministeriums für wirtschaftliche Zusammen-
arbeit und Entwicklung

More information:
health-and-globalisation.org